

Spread out information and education about floriculture is one of ASBINDO board member 2011-2014 program. These activities will be conducted periodically. One of the activities already implemented are ctivities already implemented are Seminar "Let's Garden" held in cooperation ASBINDO with Santo Fransiskus Foundation and supported by several companies on 23-24 August 2011. The program aims to add knowledge about floriculture, plant maintenance in urban areas and the benefit of plants for environment. If you want a similar program implemented to your foundation or your school please contact us .

