Tapeinochilos ananassae

Description

This plant is one of the tropical plants that admired in the world. The form of this flowers seems like an artificial flowers in flower arrangements. The plant is the family of Costaceae and well known as Indonesian Wax Ginger. Wax ginger is a perennial plant and is a native of Indonesia, Malaysia, New Guinie, and Australia.

Red flowers of this plant stiff and shiny like wax coated, its leaves are green. This plant likes moist climates and can grow as tall as 4 feet. The flowers grow directly from the ground and its stem similar with bamboo.

Care Tips

Cut flowers are long-lasting, put it on the flower arrangements will add tropical exoticism.

Where to Buy

Pesona Daun Mas Asri (0251 8242888)