

Description

Hydrangea sp- North and South America and Middle and East Asia – One of 35 Species of erect or climbing, deciduous or evergreen shrubs. Most commercial flowering plants are sold for large, showy flowers consisting primarily of conspicuous petal-like sepals.

Care Tips

These plants require a lot of sunlight, especially in the morning and evening. Place plants in areas protected from the wind. Make sure this plant grown on moist soil. Soil acidity affect plant color when in bloom. Fertilization is done with adequate fertilizer and conducted twice a year.

Where to buy

Melrimba (021-7545102/7545067), Bina Usaha Flora (0263-581624)